Bocov - Genl.

Information has recently been received by the Bureau that an Immigration and Naturalization Service informant has accused a member of the Communist Party of Mexico before the local Central Cell of that Party of being an FBI informant.

Such a practice for obvious reasons is most undesirable. You should instruct all Agents handling Bocov matters to be alert for any indication that INS informants are attempting to sabotage the work of this Bureau. Any indication of such activities should be brought to my immediate attention.

Reurlet September 8, last, captioned "Bocov," referring to the Bureau's letter of August 10, last, captioned as above. It is noted that you refer to information contained in the Bureau's letter of August 10 that Dionisio Encina, head of the Mexican Communist Party, had stated that [redacted] was responsible for the apprehension of Gus Hall in Mexico City. You further state that the person to whom this had been told by Encina was described as a "foreigner." In this connection your attention is directed to the Bureau's letter of August 10, 1955, which stated that the person from whom Encina received that information was described as a "foreigner" instead of the person to whom Encina gave the information.

In a separate part of your letter of reference you suggest that Encina may have received this information from Jacobo Hurwitz. It is further noted that following your Rebulet of August 10 last with enclosure from El Paso of July 19 last.

The Bureau noted that someone had talked with DIONISIO ENCINA, head of the Mexican Communist Party, and had been told by ENCINA that [redacted] was responsible for the apprehension of GUS HALL in Mexico City. The person to whom this had been told by ENCINA was described as a "foreigner." In common Mexican usage this would mean that the person was a non-Mexican.

It is, of course, not surprising that the Mexican Communist Party should suspect [redacted] in connection with the GUS HALL arrest because all one has to do is analyze the make-up of the group and to recall that JACOBO HURWITZ was apparently jealous of [redacted] and dissatisfied with handling in Mexico of the escape route matter by [redacted]. The stature of HURWITZ is, of course, known to the Bureau as an alleged ex-Comintern or Cominform agent, and he is a "foreigner" in Mexico. It is a logical supposition that HURWITZ has not only rather repeatedly emphasized to ENCINA that [redacted] mishandled the matter, but HURWITZ could be expected to also denounce [redacted] to ENCINA. It is of interest that, following our [redacted] after the GUS HALL arrest, [redacted]

In connection with our efforts to establish informant coverage close to the high command of the Mexican Communist Party, we have taken various affirmative steps. These are described in considerable detail under point "2" of my letter of September 7 last captioned "Informant Coverage." Reference to the details set forth in that letter will indicate that we are faced with a very definite challenge and problem, but that we are attacking it from various angles. The sporadic

Mexican police action against ENCINA makes the problem very much more difficult because it serves to make ENCINA regard himself as almost in a fugitive status, while at the same time the police action does not result in the obtaining of information of value concerning ENCINA and the Mexican Communist Party. The police action consists of a harassing effort involving arrest, detention for a few hours, and then release. This action does not result from any genuine Mexican Government anti-Communist policy, but thus far appears to be the personal operation of the Chief of the Metropolitan Police, General MIGUEL MOLINAR. This and similar Mexican police action which takes place from time to time is aimed against "agitators" rather than subversives in a broader sense.

This matter will continue to receive my closest attention, and the Bureau will be advised of informant coverage results which we are able to develop.

One extra copy of instant communication is being furnished the Bureau for transmittal to the El Paso Division

SA J. J. Creeden, Jr., who is presently assigned to the American Consulate at Monterrey, Mexico, is on leave in the United States and is residing with his mother, Mrs. Rosella C. Creeden, [redacted] Pennsylvania. Under date of 9/9/55 Mr. Creeden submitted his comments regarding the possibility of securing U. S. Border-crossing cards for Mexican informants. The conference at El Paso on June 2 and 3, 1955, brought forth discussion, primarily from San Diego representatives, that they were experiencing some delays in getting potential security informants cleared through the various channels. They indicated that the longest holdup was clearance from the Bureau to make the initial contact. It was pointed out to the conference that of necessity, when the Bureau received a request for PSI contact clearance, one of the first steps was to request Mexico City to check its records and make appropriate inquiry, where necessary, on the person in question; that due to communications facilities and checking at Mexico City, some time was consumed.

Legal Attache Speakes pointed out that the results of the checks in Mexico are largely negative and that where they have found something, it does not necessarily touch upon a matter which would influence the Bureau's decision in giving clearance or withholding it. Considering all factors, it was believed that the Bureau should make a determination from the data supplied by the field, together with information in the Bureau's records, and that although we should, of course, continue the Mexico City check, the Bureau should give a decision to the field re contact without waiting for a reply from Mexico City. Should Mexico City then come up with some derogatory data, it can be given to the field with new instructions if necessary, even though the initial contact has already been made.

I would like to have you give this some very serious consideration to see if we ~~are~~ exposing ourselves to unnecessary risks by following this new procedure; whether it is practical and could be considered a calculated risk which is outweighed by the more expeditious means by which these clearances will be handled. Mr. Belmont favors the new procedure unless, of course, it runs contra to some existing policy which neither he nor I know about at this time.

[REDACTED] advised that based upon his acquaintance with the proposed confidential informant over the past several years he has noted no personality traits in the latter which would make him suspect as a possible future source of embarrassment to the Bureau. [REDACTED] advised that the proposed informant is of stable personality and of good habits. As mentioned above, [REDACTED] due to his having Federal Security Police credentials, is in an excellent position to handle this proposed informant as a cutout and, of course, as with other informants who have police credentials, we handle the matter so as to be true recipients of the benefit rather than the Mexican Police group indicated in any specific situation.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to alet to San Diego, dated September 13, 1955, entitled [Redacted] - FBI - Bacov wherein the Bureau instructs the San Diego Office to furnish complete information regarding use of term CCM Program at Juarez and Mexico City by FBI during his trip to Mexico City in July of 1955.

[Redacted] was reinterviewed by SA ARNOLD D. ORRANTIA and SHELTON V. FANKE on September 19, 1955, at which time he advised as follows:

He reiterated that in June of 1955, PASQUAL FLORES T. came to Tijuana, B. C. from Mexico City. FBI stated that FLORES stayed in Tijuana for a few days and that prior to his departure for Mexicali, Hermosillo, and Mexico City, FLORES gave him a piece of paper which appears to be a torn portion or half of a May, 1948, CCM Program. FLORES instructed informant that upon arrival at Mexico City, he was to present himself at Union Headquarters and lay this piece of paper on the table, and that he would be taken care of.

Informant advised he departed Tijuana, on July 5, 1955, and arrived in Juarez, Mexico, on July 9, 1955. He again reiterated that on July 6, 1955, he called at the Bartenders Union in Juarez, which is located close to the Coliseo (City Auditorium) on what he thought was the Calle Maria Martinez. FBI emphatically reiterated that at the time he called at the Union headquarters he spoke with either the Secretary of Internal Affairs or the Secretary of Exterior Affairs of the Union, and that GREGORIO PATLAN was present. FBI stated that inasmuch as GREGORIO PATLAN gave him a round-trip bus ticket to Mexico City and 400 pesos for expenses he assumed that PATLAN was either the Secretary General of the Union or at least one of the top officers of the Union. FBI stated that when he introduced himself to both of these individuals at Union Headquarters he presented both his union identification card and the torn half of the program and that both of these were immediately returned to him after being viewed by both of the above individuals. FBI stated he was not in the office over forty-five minutes.

FBI stated that upon arriving in Mexico City, he presented himself at Union Headquarters at Calle Sonsoles No. 23. Upon entering the building, which appeared to be the headquarters for various unions he approached the desk of the Intendencia which according to the informant is something like the General Office Manager and presented his union credential and the torn half of the program. He stated the man at the desk returned his union credential card but retained the torn half of the program and placed it in a large log type book kept on the desk. FBI stated that in so far as he could see no one he contacted appeared to have the other half of the torn program.

In connection with this matter FBI advised that approximately two weeks ago IGNACIO CHAVEZ, who is referred to in San Diego letter dated July 29, 1955, and whom the FBI met on his trip to Mexico City, arrived in Tijuana. IGNACIO CHAVEZ contacted FBI and asked him if the La Voz de Mexico had good circulation in Lower California and whether or not it would be possible for sell subscriptions to La Voz de Mexico in Lower California. CHAVEZ also told FBI that every effort should be made to circulate La Voz de Mexico at the Agua Caliente Race Track in Tijuana, and among the various union members of the CNOC union. CHAVEZ also inquired of FBI regarding the publication of the weekly newspaper Avante, which is published by the Hortensara and Walters Union in Tijuana, and whether or not it would be possible for FBI to have some articles published in that newspaper which CHAVEZ would send him.

With respect to CHAVEZ, FBI advised that during his trip to Mexico City and in his several contacts with CHAVEZ he indicated an interest in the Communist Party of Mexico. FBI made available to SA ORRANTIA a letter which he had received from J. PILLAR RODRIGUEZ from the Partido Comunista Mexicano, Casita Central Hamburgo #9, Mexico D. F. This letter in general contained the following information:

Interested Comrade:

"We have been informed by the comrades from the La Voz de Mexico, via a letter addressed by you to them, of your interest in joining the ranks of our Party.

The letter proceeds to explain the requirements for joining the Party and requested the FBI to forward his complete biography to the Central Committee who would in turn pass on it.

The FBI advised that he has already forwarded his complete biography to the Central Committee and stated he was of the belief that IGNACIO CHAVEZ may have recommended him.

The FBI has in no way been encouraged to join the Communist Party of Mexico and has been told on different occasions that any step taken in that direction is being done by him of his own will and volition.

Extra copies of this letter are being forwarded to the Bureau for further transmittal to the Legat, Mexico, for information.

The El Paso Office is requested to conduct additional investigation re GREGORIO PATLAN in an effort to corroborate the information furnished by the FBI. If possible, it is requested the El Paso Office attempt to obtain a photograph of GREGORIO PATLAN from the files of US I & NS.

Information copies are being sent to all Border offices inasmuch as this may develop into a possible avenue of placing Informants in the Communist Party of Mexico.

Mr. William C. ~~Dunn~~, Acting Chief Investigator, El Paso District office, US I&NS, called at the PX office at 11:45 am, 9/28/55. He advised that he would be grateful if dissemination of reports on subversive activities, organizations and individuals, could be disseminated to him at El Paso rather than to Mr. EMIL H. PULLIN, officer in charge of I&NS at Tucson, Arizona. He said he likes to keep dissemination of our reports to a minimum and would prefer receiving the material directly if that is possible. I told Mr. DUNN we would be glad to make the dissemination of this type of material directly to the Immigration and Naturalization District Office at El Paso and rely on him to disseminate to Mr. PULLIN at Tucson.

Mr. DUNN advised that an individual named [redacted] had been giving him information but he not had any confidence in [redacted] and had discontinued him. He said he understood that [redacted] is now furnishing information in the Los Angeles District to I&NS. He said he had also noticed the FBI had never been asked to furnish information about [redacted] and whether contact with him would interfere with any investigation the FBI was conducting of him. He advised that he wanted us to know that [redacted] had been handled without our knowledge or "clearance" and he asked if we had information concerning [redacted] which we could furnish and whether contact with him would interfere with any investigation we were conducting.

I told Mr. DUNN that contact with [redacted] would not interfere with any investigation we were conducting and furnished him the information furnished this office by San Diego by letter dated 9/14/55. The substance of this information is, according to Captain JORGE PANIAGUA of Mexicalli PD, [redacted] who has in the past acted as an under-cover agent of the Mexican Army in Communist investigations, has disappeared and is suspected of being either killed, or of having defected to the Communist Party of Mexico.

Further, according to Captain PANIAGUA, [redacted] is a Lieutenant in the Mexican Army, who joined the CP at an early age and who furnished information to the Mexican Army for sometime until he was discovered and was shot in the leg by another member of the CP of Mexico. [redacted] was then allegedly transferred to Mexicali, Mexico, where he worked with the Mexicali Police as a detective. Further, according to PANIAGUA, [redacted] recently met up with the person who shot him and shortly thereafter, [redacted] disappeared. [redacted] was reportedly somewhat influenced by the CP teachings and according to PANIAGUA, the possibility exists that [redacted] may have defected to the Communist Party and may have gone underground to work for that party in the Los Angeles area, where he has relatives. The additional possibility exists that [redacted] may have been killed by his former comrade in the Mexican CP.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

DATE: 9/9/55

FROM : SA JOHN J. CREEDEN, JR.

SUBJECT: BOCOV - General
Possibility of Securing U. S. Border
Crossing Cards for Mexican Informants
ADMINISTRATIVE

Pursuant to the instructions of the Director, there are being set out below the facts concerning the possibility of obtaining border crossing cards for Mexican aliens residing in Mexico who, because of their informant capacity, must visit the United States periodically.

It is to be noted that border crossing cards can be obtained for Mexican citizens residing in Mexico at the various American Consulates located within the Country of Mexico. The general requirements for these border crossing cards are that he is an admissible alien and has established residence within the consular area. It is also necessary for him to show cause that he visits the United States periodically for business reasons. It has been noted by the writer that the Visa Section of the American Consulate in Monterrey, N.L., Mexico, is at the present time endeavoring to issue as many border crossing cards as possible, thereby alleviating the visitors' visa traffic which is exceedingly heavy in this Consulate. It is believed that in some extenuating cases, if the confidential informant were to establish a temporary residence within a certain consular area, that a valid border crossing card could be obtained for him through the Consulate without causing any difficulties between the Bureau and the State Department. The policies on issuing these border crossing cards by various Consulates within the Republic of Mexico are more lenient than those practiced by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service along the border.

In view of the foregoing, it is believed that the possibility of obtaining these border crossing cards should be studied more thoroughly, and it is quite possible that an agreement or understanding can be reached whereby these cards can be issued. It is also believed that in certain circumstances, a border crossing card can be obtained legally for a CI if there are no stop cards in the Consulate and the Consulate will in no way know the identity or purpose of the individual's trip to the U. S.

For the information of the Bureau, these border crossing cards are valid for six years, but must be renewed every two years. A person using a border crossing card may enter the United States at any point along the border for a period not exceeding 72 hours. The above is being submitted for your information.

On 9/2/55 SA Clarence P. Graham, Resident Agent in Laredo, Texas, was interviewed by Inspector G. A. Nease, at which time Graham indicated that he felt border-crossing cards could be obtained from the American Consul in Mexico rather than going through Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS).

On 9/7/55 the Director saw SA J. J. Creeden, Jr., who is assigned to the American Consul in Monterrey, Mexico, at which time Creeden suggested that the problem of border-crossing privileges for informants might be met by having the American Consuls in Mexico issue the necessary papers provided, of course, this arrangement was kept to a minimum and not abused by the Bureau. The Director asked Creeden to submit a memorandum setting forth his suggestions and ideas so that the matter could be given further study.

The attached memorandum has now been received from SA Creeden in which he advises that the general requirements for border-crossing cards to be issued at American Consulates are that the subject be an admissible alien and that he has established residence within the consular area. He must also show cause for periodical visits to the United States for business reasons. The Consulate at Monterrey is presently issuing as many border-crossing cards as possible, thereby alleviating the heavy visitor's visa traffic. Creeden believes that in some extenuating cases if the informant were to establish a temporary residence in a particular consular area, a valid border-crossing card could be obtained through the Consulate without difficulties. The issuance of border-crossing cards by Consulates is more lenient than by the INS. Creeden therefore believes that the possibility of obtaining these border-crossing cards should be studied more thoroughly and possibly an agreement or understanding can be reached whereby these cards can be issued. He also believes cards can be obtained legally for an informant if there are no stop cards in the Consulate which would prevent the routine issuance of a card and the Consulate will not know the identity of the individual* or the purpose of his trip to the United States. Creeden points out that these cards are valid for 6 years but must be renewed every 2 years. A card permits the holder to enter the United States at any point along the border for a period not exceeding 72 hours.

*AS AN INFORMANT

COMMENTS:

This matter has been discussed with Supervisor C. L. Green on the Criminal Informant Desk since it pertains to criminal informants as well as security informants. Mr. Green is of the opinion that each case wherein an informant needs border-crossing privileges should be judged on its own merits, at which time the best means of obtaining a border-crossing card for that particular informant could be determined.

In view of the hostility of General Swing of INS, it has become necessary to work out some arrangement so that border-crossing cards can be obtained for informants from the American Consulates, although it will have to be handled on an individual case basis, rather than on a day-to-day basis as it has been done in the past. Creeden may be able to obtain border-crossing cards for certain informants. Those cards, however, would be issued in Monterrey only if the informant had lived in that consular area. This, of course, would not apply to most of our border informants who live in the immediate border area covered by the Consulates at Matamoros, Nuevo Laredo, Juarez, Nogales, Mexicali, and Piedres Negras, over which Monterrey has no jurisdiction. In addition, an informant who normally lives in the border area might become conspicuous if he had a border-crossing card from a Consulate not covering the place in which he normally resides, even though he might have established a temporary residence in the Monterrey area to obtain the card. Consular border-crossing cards can normally be obtained if there is no derogatory information available in the Consulate files. Most of our informants, of course, have security records and it may be necessary, therefore, in certain cases to reveal our interests in the informant to the appropriate consular official in order to obtain the card. In this connection a possibility exists that although the card is issued by a Consulate, INS could take the card up or refuse to honor it if they connected the bearer of the card with derogatory information appearing in INS files. That problem, however, will have to be met as each occasion arises.

Memorandum for Mr. Boardman

While in some instances we might be able to utilize border-crossing cards from Monterrey, from the information available at present it would appear that such cards would not be feasible in other instances because Monterrey is distant from the border area where the informants reside. Two further possibilities exist, however: (1) Creeden might be able, through his consular contacts, to obtain border-crossing cards from the border Consulates, and (2) the border offices might be able to make arrangements with the border Consulates on a highly confidential basis to issue border-crossing cards when needed. This latter situation is not particularly desirable since it would require revealing to another Government agency (in this case the State Department) that we are interested in the particular individual. It might be necessary, however, in certain instances to utilize this system and it is believed that we should explore it further.

RECOMMENDATION:

(1) It is recommended that the attached letter be sent to the border offices requesting them to furnish their comments regarding the feasibility of their obtaining border-crossing cards from the border Consulates on a confidential basis. A copy of that letter is being sent to the Legal Attache for his comments regarding the feasibility of obtaining visas through the Resident Agents handling leads in the northern part of Mexico (J. J. Creeden in the eastern part and M.M. Rink on the west coast).

(2) That the attached letter be sent to Philadelphia asking Creeden, who is there on vacation, to submit his comments regarding the feasibility of his obtaining border-crossing cards from the border Consulates.

Reference is made to my memorandum dated 9/12/55, analyzing the progress made by the border offices to date and pointing out that San Antonio's progress is unsatisfactory. It was stated in my memorandum of reference the unsatisfactory situation has been brought forcefully to the attention of the SAC, who is under instructions to submit his comments regarding the ability of the Agents assigned to this program to develop informants, and to submit the results of his analysis of Mexican Communists who might be possible informant material. As indicated, upon receipt of that information, if data and facts submitted do not justify the lack of progress, recommendations for appropriate administrative action will be submitted. That memorandum bears the Director's notation, "We should not palliate with this any longer. The Bureau is judged only by results and we in turn must judge our representatives the same way. H."

The Director's comments ^{been} brought to the attention of the Training and Inspection Division for consideration in connection with the recheck inspection being made of the San Antonio Office.

By teletype San Antonio has also been instructed to submit the information desired concerning the ability of the Agents to develop informants in the program and the results of the analysis of potential Mexican Communist informant material, to reach the Bureau on Monday, September 19, 1955. Upon receipt of that information, appropriate recommendations will be submitted.

ReBulet 9-15-55 instructing that it was no longer possible to utilize the Immigration and Naturalization Service (I&NS) to obtain border crossing privileges for informants. This letter also stated that it had been suggested that border crossing cards might be issued by U. S. Consulates for informants rather than the I&NS and requested that offices receiving copy of communication of 9-15 advise the Bureau the feasibility of such a practice.

It appears that if I&NS has no information of an excludable nature about a particular informant the informant can obtain a border crossing card without mediation on the part of the Bureau. If on the other hand, I&NS files do contain such information and if the informant were to obtain a border crossing card from an American Consulate, the files of I&NS would be checked at the time the informant presented the card for entry into the U. S. for the first time. At this time I&NS will discover the information in its files and will pick up the border crossing card and the informant will be in the same position as he was in previously. A practice, therefore, of mediating on behalf of the informant with a Consulate because I&NS files contain derogatory information would not solve the basic problem. To obtain a visa or border crossing card from a Consulate, however, might be a useful tactic in those exceptional cases where admission of the informant is sought at a place other than where I&NS has a record of the informant. This should be kept in mind.

Under no circumstances are you to make requests locally of I&NS without specific Bureau authority to permit an informant to enter the U. S. If you feel that a particular case merits further consideration you should present full facts, possible courses of action and your recommendations to the Bureau for consideration on an individual basis.

~~PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL~~

Subject: ~~BORDER CROSSING PRIVILEGES FOR MEXICAN INFORMANTS~~

o Pined

Reference Bulet of September 15 last.

The Legal Attache has inquired of LOUIS MASON DRURY of this Embassy concerning the issuance of border-crossing cards. This matter was brought up in a discreet way without any indication given as to why this matter would be of interest to us. Mr. DRURY, who has recently been inspecting various consulates, told me that border-crossing cards are being issued in all of the border consulates, plus the consulate in Monterrey. According to him, the Mexican Form 13 is the normal basis for the securing of a card. This is a white identification card carrying the picture of the bearer and it is normally issued by local Mexican authorities. It is the practice in the consulate to issue a border-crossing card upon presentation of that Form 13 and after a local name search has been made within the consulate for any adverse information of an Internal Security nature. Mr. DRURY does not feel that normally the bona fide local residence of the applicant is checked on by the consulate but the Form 13 would normally have been issued by some Mexican authority in the immediate area and the card would so indicate.

The consulates, of course, also issue visas but the border-crossing card has definite advantages for persons who do not intend to penetrate beyond the border zone and who will make repeated crossings of but short individual duration.

Inasmuch as Resident Agent MALCOLM M. RINK has been in Mexico City since receipt of Bulet of reference, this matter was taken up with him and he has advised that he feels himself to have excellent personal relations with Mr. CLIFTON P. ENGLISH, the American Consul at Nogales, Sonora. He feels that ENGLISH would be very well disposed toward cooperating with him on a confidential basis. SA RINK points out, however, that even though a Mexican informant might have a border-crossing card or a passport with a valid visa, INS could still stop the individual from entering the U. S. if INS had a trace on that individual reflecting derogatory information. INS can refuse to honor a visa at the port of entry whether the visa be issued by this Embassy or one of the consulates and INS can also refuse to honor a border-crossing card.

It may be noted that border-crossing cards are also issued in this Embassy in Mexico City but they do not have the popularity here that they do along the border because this issuing consulate is so far inland. This office has excellent official and personal relations with the Visa Section of this Embassy and can anticipate and expect cooperation should in the future we feel it appropriate to make any such approaches.

It is noted that the Bureau is requesting SA JOHN J. CREEDEN, JR., for comments at the Seat of Government and, accordingly, instant communication is not intended to be inclusive of any thoughts on the matter which SA CREEDEN may have. It is noted that due to SA CREEDEN's assignment and the importance of the Monterrey Consulate as a visa-issuing consulate, SA CREEDEN will have had more practical experience with this matter than most other Agents assigned in Mexico.

Sufficient copies of instant letter are being forwarded in the event the Bureau desires to furnish same to border offices in the United States. It may be noted that Mr. LOUIS MASON DRURY, who has the title of First Secretary and Consul, has, while assigned at the Department of State in Washington, been a very friendly and cooperative contact of the Bureau.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST COVERAGE ALONG THE MEXICAN BORDER

SYNOPSIS:

OB000V General

Following is summary relative to progress made in captioned project since June, 1955 conference setting forth details of progress made and coverage established in each community covered by individual border offices. Map of area attached.

San Diego continues to make best progress in this program. Security informants increased from 6 to 11, potential security informants from 7 to 10, 80 Communist Party (CP) members and 163 sympathizers in five communities. Coverage at rate of one informant per 7.8 party members not excessive in view of Soviet intelligence activities and general CP activities in the area. Pressure being exerted to further extend coverage and San Diego setting potential informants for possible recruitment into CP.

Phoenix covers extensive barren territory with four medium-sized and three small-sized communities with total of 26 CP members. No CP organizations but individual Communists and Popular Party organization are investigative objectives. Security informants increased from 1 to 2, potential security informants from 0 to 12, investigative informants from 0 to 6, confidential sources from 1 to 7, potential confidential sources from 0 to 7. Phoenix established basic coverage through which inquiries can be handled. Instructed to expedite investigations in order not to delay selection of individuals who might be suitable or amenable to approach as possible informants.

Albuquerque covers barren area with only two extremely small communities where no Communists or Popular Party members reside. Coverage maintained through one informant and one potential informant with potential confidential sources increased from 0 to 2 and sources from 2 to 4. Supplemental coverage maintained on American side of border continued with 2 informants and potential informants increased from 0 to 1, sources from 3 to 18. Albuquerque discreetly interviewing individuals from agricultural colonies beyond 25 mile limit to locate potential informant material.

El Paso territory has chief population center in Juarez where 22 current active Communists and estimated 277 former Communists located. Coverage increased from 1 informant to 3, 5 potential informants to 17, 3 confidential sources to 12, 0 investigative informants to 3, 0 potential investigative informants to 1, 0 sources to 14. Other communities in area have no current active Communists but have 22 former CP members. El Paso presently endeavoring to develop and exploit 17 potential informants; also verifying or disproving allegations of Communist sympathies on part of city officials at Ojinaga to determine possible utilization of local officials in coverage of that town. Instructions issued to develop additional sources in Juarez regarding Chinese and Spanish refugee activities.

San Antonio's progress to date is unsatisfactory. Coverage expanded from 1 informant to 2, 5 potential informants to 17, investigative informants from 0 to 3, to cover 44 CP members in State of Coahuila and estimated 95 active Communists in Tamaulipas. No CP organizations exist in Coahuila and CP organization presently disrupted in State of Tamaulipas with possible exception of Nuevo Laredo. Most potential security informants developed are of the readily available type who should have been developed before. Unsatisfactory situation has been brought forcefully to attention of SAC who is under instructions to submit comments regarding ability of agents assigned to this program to develop informants, and to submit results of analysis of Mexican Communists who might be possible informant material. Upon receipt of that information, if data and facts submitted do not justify lack of progress, recommendations for appropriate administrative action will be submitted.

Memorandum for Boardman from Belmont

DETAILS:

The following is a summary of the developments in the establishment of coverage by the border offices during the three months since the June, 1955, conference. The summary is based on the monthly progress reports submitted by each border office for August, 1955. A map of the area is attached.

SAN DIEGO

The best progress in this program continues to be made by San Diego. That office covers the area of the border where Communist and Soviet intelligence activity is greatest. Although there are only 80 members of the Communist Party of Mexico and an estimated 163 sympathizers in the 5 communities in the area, the region is vitally important due to the organized activity of the Communist Party of Mexico and the fact that Dr. Julio Prado Valdez, who is apparently a key Soviet intelligence contact, resides in that area.

A comparison of the coverage maintained by San Diego at the time of the June conference and now shows the following:

	June 1, 1955	August 31, 1955
Security Informants	6	11
Potential Security Informants (In various stages of development)	7	10
Confidential Sources	4	4

Most of these informants and potential informants are mobile and able to cover Communist activities in various communities. The number of Communist Party members and coverage is, therefore, broken down as follows:

Memorandum from Belmont to Boardman

Tijuana: Estimated population 80,000 to 100,000. 19 Communist Party members, 16 sympathizers. Coverage maintained through: 4 Security Informants; 3 Potential Security Informants; 2 Confidential Sources.

Mexicali: Estimated population 125,000 to 140,000. 27 Communist Party members, 122 sympathizers. Coverage maintained through; 9 Security Informants; 5 Potential Security Informants.

Ensenada: Estimated population 40,000. 32 Communist Party members, 17 sympathizers. Coverage maintained through: 3 Security Informants; 1 Potential Security Informant; 1 Confidential Source.

Tecate: Estimated population 6,000 to 8,000. 2 Communist Party members, 3 sympathizers. Coverage maintained through: 2 Security Informants; 1 Confidential Source.

Algodones: Estimated population 500. No Communist Party members, 5 sympathizers. Coverage maintained through: 1 Potential Security Informant.

San Diego's 11 informants include excellent sources such as [redacted] of a former high Mexican Communist Party official who is still contacted by the more important Mexican Communists who visit Baja California; [redacted] a Mexican police officer who is a former informant of the Legal Attache's office and who has recently converted [redacted] of the Communist Party in Baja California, into one of his sources; [redacted] a Mexican police officer who handles surveillances on Dr. Julio Prado Valdez, a principal figure in the Soviet intelligence setup; [redacted] who has developed a close association with Prado Valdez to help cover his activities and contacts; and [redacted] who has furnished an up-to-date list of addresses of Communist Party members in Ensenada. San Diego also has some excellent Potential Security Informants.

Although the proportion of 11 informants to 80 Communist Party members (1 informant per 7.8 Party members) is high, San Diego has not overdeveloped from an informant standpoint due to the need for concentrated coverage of Prado Valdez and his Soviet intelligence activities as well as the general activities of the Communist Party in the area. On the contrary, constant pressure is being exerted to extend San Diego's informant coverage. At the present time there are allegations that the Communists may start a recruiting drive in Baja California in the near future. With this in mind, San Diego is attempting to set up as many Potential Security Informants as possible and place them in a position to be recruited into the Communist Party.

PHOENIX

The area covered by Phoenix is largely barren or mountainous territory with 4 medium-sized and 3 small-sized communities. There is no Communist Party organization in the area although there are individual Communists and a Popular Party organization.

A comparison of the coverage maintained by Phoenix on June 1, 1955, and now shows the following:

	June 1, 1955	August 31, 1955
Security Informants	1	2
Potential Security Informants	0	12
Investigative Informants* (Security)	0	6
Confidential Sources	1	7
Potential Confidential Sources	0	7
Sources	0	1

Some of the above individuals are able to furnish information concerning more than one community.

The number of subversives and the coverage maintained is broken down as follows:

Aqua Prieta: Population 13,000. 8 individuals reported at one time or another as Communists and 17 members of the Popular Party. Coverage maintained through: 1 Investigative informant; 1 Potential Security Informant.

Cananea: Population 18,890. 8 alleged Communists who make up the leadership of the Popular Party. Coverage maintained through: 6 Potential Security Informants, (2 of whom can conduct investigations); 5 Potential Confidential Sources.

Naco: Population 2,495. 9 Popular Party members. Coverage maintained through: 1 Investigative Informant; 2 Potential Security Informants; 1 Source of information.

Nogales: Population 26,000. 10 alleged Communists and 8 members of the Popular Party. Coverage maintained through: 1 Security Informant; 2 Investigative Informants (Security); 3 Potential Security Informants.

Sasabe: Population 500. No Communist or Popular Party members. Coverage maintained through: 1 Potential Security Informant; 2 Potential Confidential Sources.

* Mexican police officers who conduct investigations for Phoenix in Mexico.

Memorandum from Belmont to Boardman

Sonoita: Population 1,000. No Communists, 16 individuals who voted for Popular Party ticket in recent election. Coverage maintained through: 1 Investigative Informant; 3 Potential Security Informants.

San Luis: Population 12,000. No Communist Party members, 29 voters for Popular Party in recent election. Coverage maintained through: 1 Investigative Informant; 2 Potential Security Informants; 2 Confidential Sources.

Phoenix has established basic coverage through which inquiries can be handled and investigations conducted relative to security subjects. Investigations are now underway on the various subjects who have been indicated in the past as being Communists or leaders of the Popular Party. Phoenix is reviewing those investigations to select the subjects who might be most willing and able to serve as security informants, after which arrangements will be made for approaches to those individuals. Phoenix is being instructed to expedite those investigations and not to delay the selection of individuals to be considered as Potential Security Informants until all of the investigations are completed but rather to give consideration to each subject as his or her investigation is completed in order to determine whether or not that subject might be suitable and amenable to an approach.

ALBUQUERQUE

This office covers approximately 200 miles of border area which is largely desert and which contains only two population centers, El Berrendo, a Mexican customs checking point populated only by the customs officers and their families; and Las Palomas, population from 150 to 200. There are no Communists or Popular Party members in these two settlements. In addition, the Albuquerque office is endeavoring to establish coverage in the agricultural colonies south of the 25-mile border area which have allegedly been Communist infiltrated.

A comparison of Albuquerque's coverage on the Mexican side of the border and that maintained on June 1, 1955, shows the following:

	June 1, 1955	August 31, 1955
Security Informant	1	1
Potential Security Informant	1	1
Potential Confidential Sources	0	2
Sources	2	4

Coverage maintained on the American side of the border in connection with the border coverage program:

	June 1, 1955	August 31, 1955
Security Informants	2	2
Potential Security Informants	0	1
Sources	3	18

Memorandum from Belmont to Boardman

Due to the sparse population in the area, Albuquerque has also developed special sources in the communities of the American side of the border where possible subversives coming from Mexico might conceivably make contact. Some of these sources cover more than one community and furnish coverage as follows;

Columbus, New Mexico: 8 Sources; 1 Potential Confidential Source; 1 Potential Security Informant.

Hachita, New Mexico: 2 Sources.

Wilma, New Mexico: 1 Source

Deming, New Mexico: 2 Sources

Lordsburg, New Mexico: 1 Source

Silver City, New Mexico: 1 Source

Santa Rita, New Mexico: 1 Source

Central, New Mexico: 1 Source

Las Cruces, New Mexico: 1 Source; 1 Security Informant.

Albuquerque has been interviewing individuals from the agricultural colonies south of Las Palomas, on a discreet basis, in order to locate individuals who might be in a position to furnish information or who might be susceptible to development as informants. This program must, of course, be handled most discreetly.

EL PASO

El Paso covers the populated area of the Chihuahua border from Juarez east. The principal population point is Juarez and there are several small communities with extended barren stretches of territory between.

Potential Investigative Informants	0	1

Several of the above persons are able to furnish information relative to more than one area. The breakdown on the Communists and coverage of each community is as follows:

Juarez: Estimated population 165,000. 22 Current active Communists; estimated 277 former Communist Party members. Coverage maintained through: 3 Security Informants; 17 Potential Security Informants in various stages of development; 8 Confidential Sources; 3 Investigative Informants; 1 Potential Investigative Informant; 11 Sources.

Zaragoza: Estimated population 5,000. Active Communists - none; 4 former Communist Party members. Coverage maintained through: 2 Investigative Informants; 1 Potential Investigative Informant; 4 Confidential Sources.

Guadalupe Bravos: Estimated population 1,853. No active Communists or former Communist Party members. Coverage maintained through: 2 Investigative Informants; 1 Potential Investigative Informant; 4 Confidential sources.

Ojinaga: Estimated population 6,500. No active Communists known; 4 former members of Communist Party. Coverage maintained through: 1 Confidential Source.

Praxides G. Guerrero: Estimated population 3,800. No active Communists; 5 former Communist Party members. Coverage maintained through: 2 Investigative Informants; 1 Potential Investigative Informant; 4 Confidential Sources; 3 Sources.

Manuel Benavides: Population unknown since reliable estimates are not available. No active Communists reported residing there although 9 former Communist Party members are allegedly in the area. No coverage is maintained at present. This town is difficult to reach and to get there it is necessary to go beyond the 25-mile limit. Authorization was recently given to El Paso for Agents to visit that town to make a general survey of the situation in order to estimate conditions and determine what coverage might possibly be established.

No subversives are or have been reported in the villages of San Agustin, El Porvenir, Banderas or Bosque Bonito, but coverage of those areas is maintained through the investigative informants covering the nearby areas.

The main Communist activity in this area centers in Juarez. The coverage there includes [redacted] who helped break the Gus Hall case, b7D and [redacted] a new informant who has been reactivated as a member of the Communist Party. El Paso at present is endeavoring to develop and exploit the 17 individuals selected as Potential Security Informants in the Juarez area. In Ojinaga caution is being exercised because of allegations that the town President and Chief of Police are pro-Communist. Inquiries to verify or disprove those allegations are underway; upon the completion of those investigations it will be determined whether or not local officials can be utilized to any extent in the establishment of coverage in that area. El Paso is under instructions to develop additional sources in Juarez to cover the Chinese and Spanish refugee colonies in that area.

SAN ANTONIO

San Antonio covers about 800 miles of border area of the States of Coahuila, Tamaulipas, and ten miles of the Nuevo Leon area. The territory naturally divides into 3 districts: The Coahuila border; the area around Nuevo Laredo including 10 miles of the Nuevo Leon border district; and the Reynosa-Valle Hermosa-Matamoros area. There is no Communist Party organization, as such, in the Coahuila area and conflicting reports have been received concerning the actual existence of an organized Communist group in Nuevo Laredo. The Reynosa-Valle Hermosa-Matamoros area was formerly the principal center of Communist activity in the San Antonio district. Party organization in that area, however, was disrupted in 1954, when the Communists were held responsible for some riots and 11 Communist Party members were arrested. At least one Communist Party leader disappeared and it was rumored that he had been killed by the Commanding General. The General has claimed to our Agents that he did not kill this individual but sent him to a prison. The General, however, took advantage of the subject's rumored death and reportedly passed out the word that he had a list of the Communist leaders in the border area and if further trouble occurred those individuals might also disappear mysteriously. These repressive measures have disorganized the Party in that area for the time being and there is no effective leadership. Dionicio Encina, the Secretary General of the Mexican Communist Party, reportedly stated in the recent past that the Party will not be reorganized in Northern Tamaulipas until the "persecution" by the FBI and the Mexican police dies down. He indicated that when the Party is eventually reorganized there, it will be on a quality, not quantity, basis.

A comparison of the coverage maintained by San Antonio on June 1, 1955, now shows the following:

	June 1, 1955	August 31, 1955
Security Informants	1	2
Potential Security Informants	5	17
Investigative Informants (Security)	0	3
Confidential Sources	2	2
Sources	6	3

The number of sources has decreased as some of these individuals have been activated as Potential Security Informants.

Some of the individuals are mobile and able to cover activities in various areas.

The number of Communists in San Antonio's border area are:

State of Coahuila: 44 Communist Party members, (a slight revision over previous reports since as 3 reported Communists have left the area and 2 additional ones have been identified.) They are concentrated in the cities of Acuna, Jimenez and Piedras Negras. No Communists are reported to live in Ocampo, Nava, Guerrero and Hidalgo.

In the State of Nuevo Leon there are no Communists in the ten-mile strip bordering on the United States. Coverage, however, is maintained in connection with that established in nearby Nuevo Laredo.

In Tamaulipas there are reportedly 95 Communists with 14 in Nuevo Laredo and the remainder in the Reynosa-Valle Hermosa-Matamoros area.

The number of Communists and coverage maintained is broken down as follows:

Acuna, Coahuila: Population 13,500. 12 Communists. Coverage maintained through: 2 Potential Security Informants, 1 Source.

Memorandum for Boardman from Belmont

Jimenez, Coahuila: Population 8,085. 6 Communists. Coverage maintained through 1 Potential Security Informant; 2 Sources.

Piedras Negras: 26 Communists reported. Coverage maintained through: 2 Potential Security Informants; 1 Investigative Informant; 1 Confidential Source; 1 Source.

Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas: 14 Communists reportedly presently active. Coverage maintained through: 2 Security Informants; 5 Potential Security Informants; 1 Source.

Mier, Tamaulipas: Population 4,000. Since 1949, 4 individuals reported as Communist Party members. None presently active. Coverage maintained through: 3 Sources.

Camargo, Tamaulipas: Population 8,000. Since 1949, 2 individuals reported as members of the Communist Party. None presently active. Coverage maintained through: 4 Potential Security Informants.

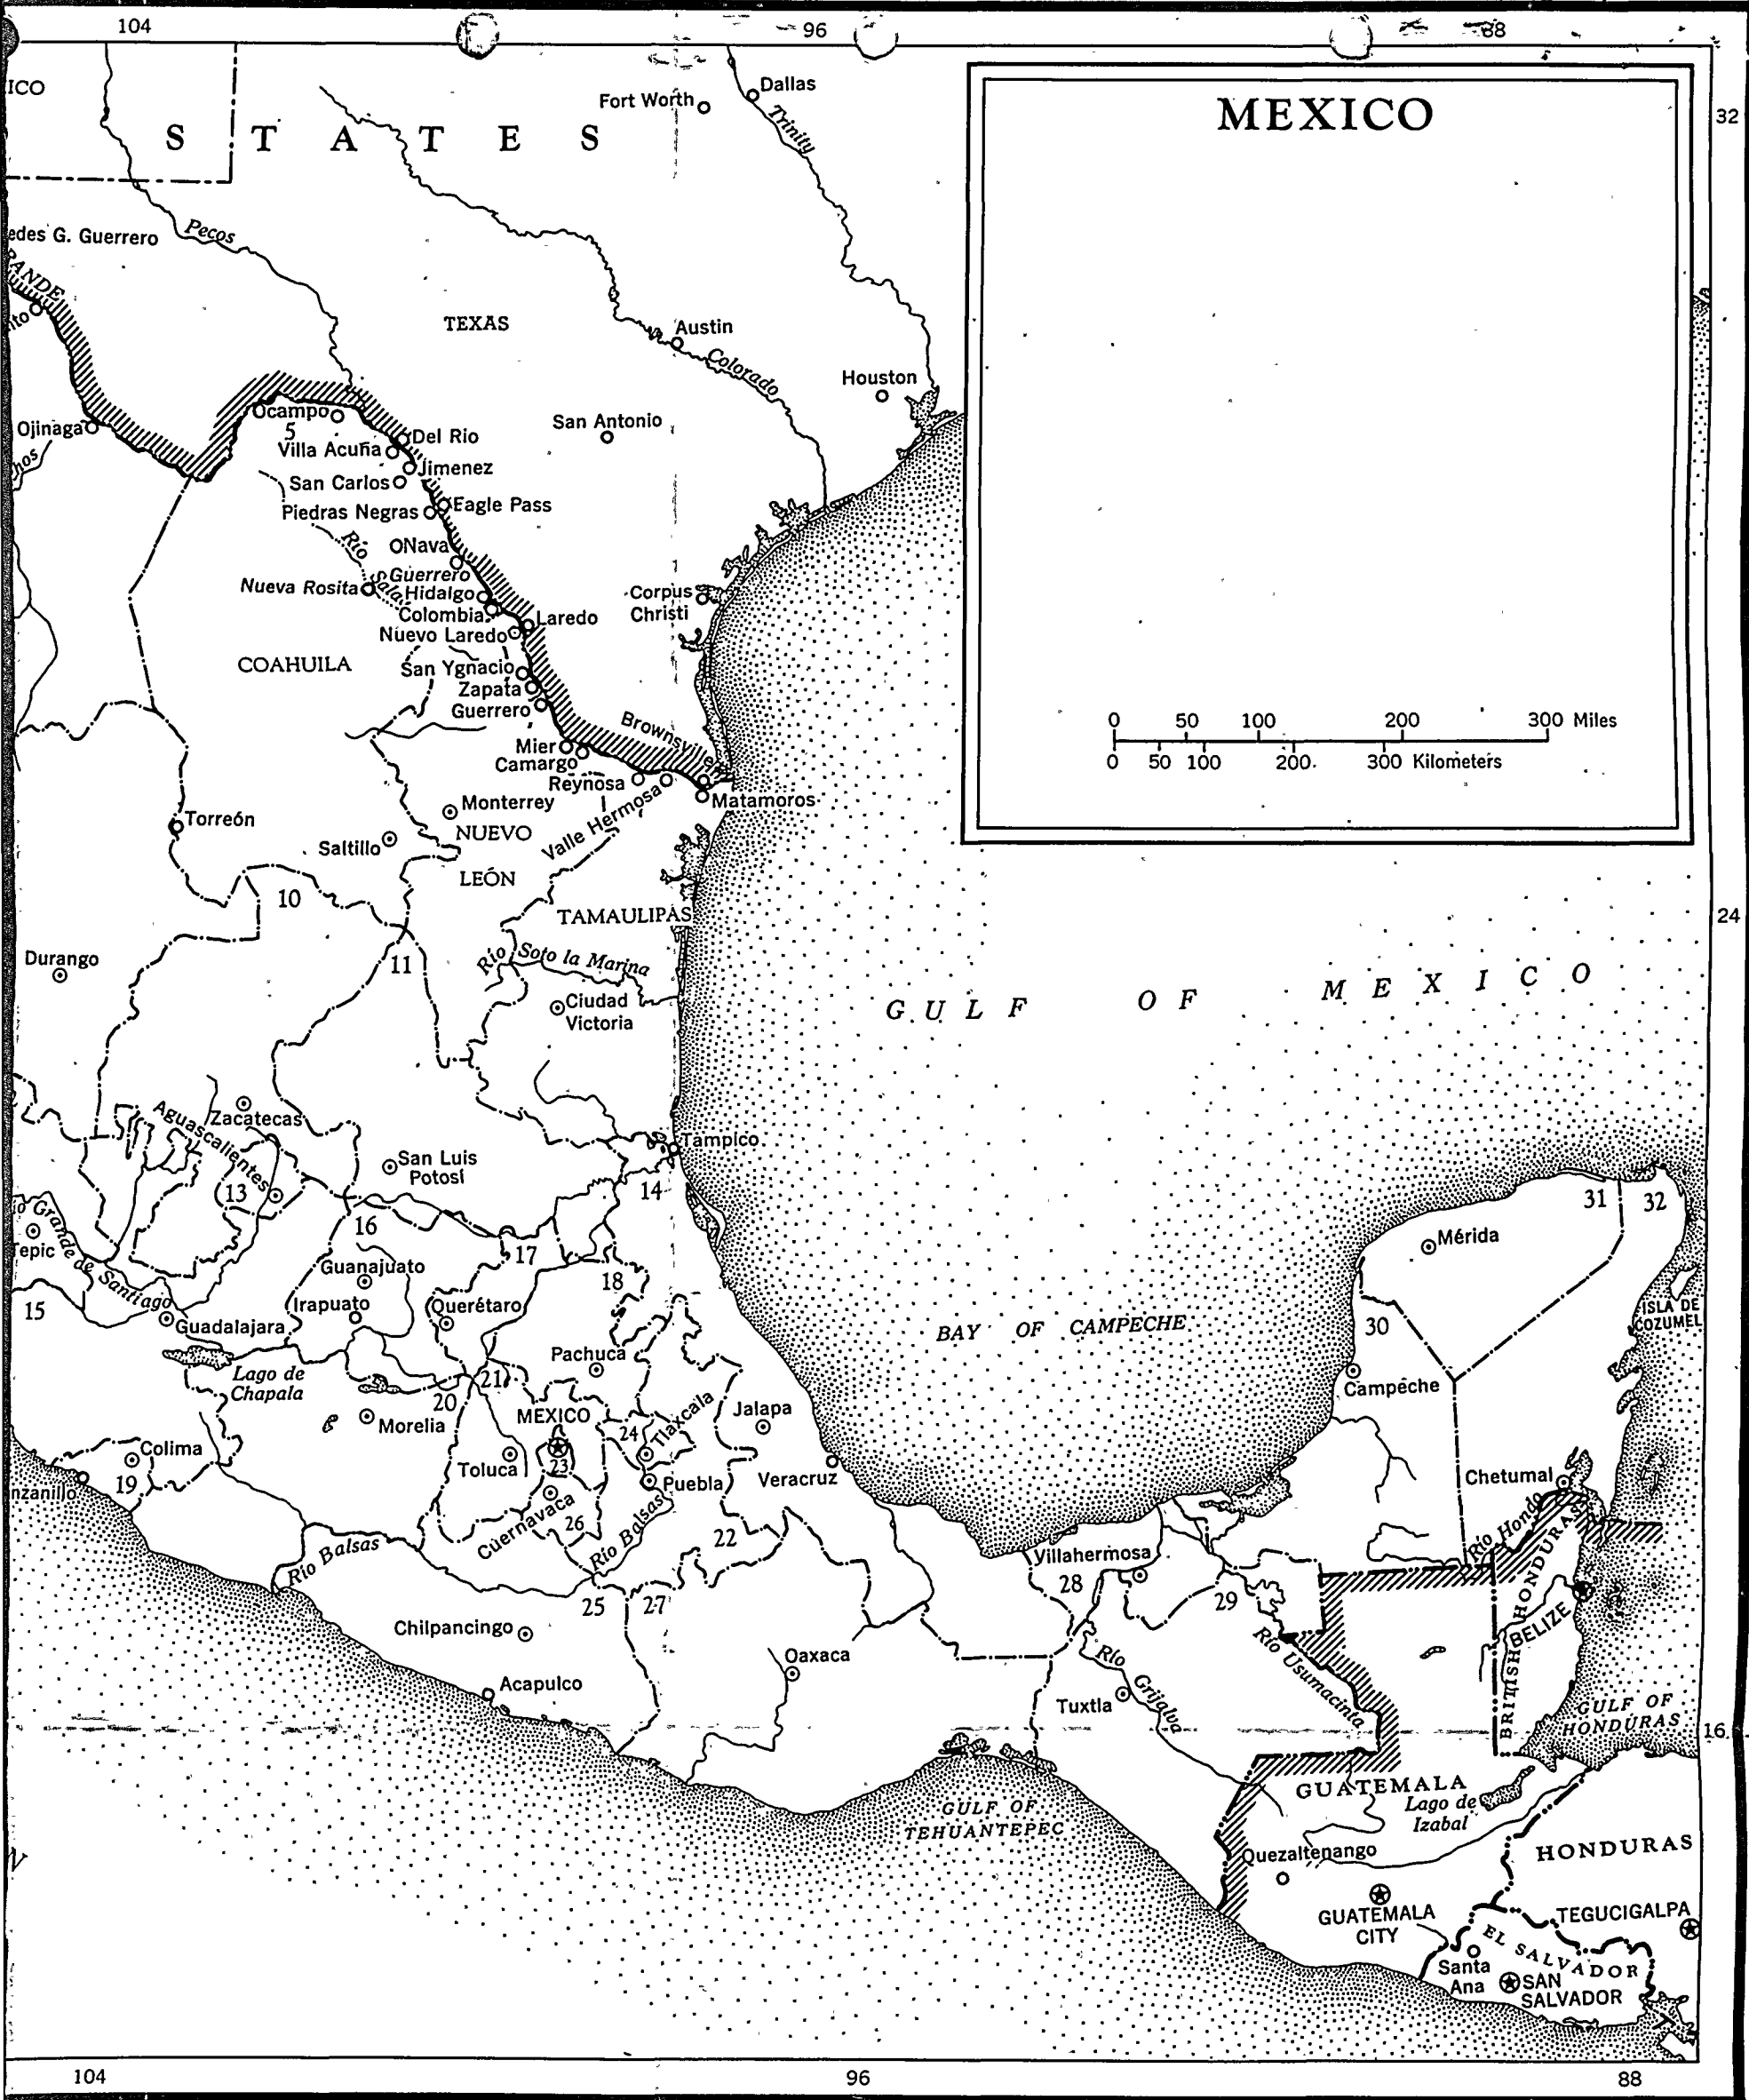

Reynosa: Population 65,000; Valle Hermosa, Population 45,000; Matamoros, Population 45,000. These communities constitute a single unit from the standpoint of security investigations. Since 1949, 63 individuals in Reynosa, 43 in Valle Hermosa, and 109 in Matamoros have been reported as Communists. At the present time there are estimated to be 81 active Communists in this entire area. Coverage is maintained through: 1 Security Informant, who is closely associated with the principal Communist figures; 6 Potential Security Informants, (including the 2 Commanding Generals in the area, and a criminal informant, all of whom are in a position to conduct investigations for the San Antonio Office.)

Although San Antonio has developed one additional Security Informant and 12 Potential Security Informants more than they had on June 1, 1955, their coverage is still unsatisfactory. Most of the Potential Security Informants are of the readily available type who should have been developed before. This situation has been brought forcefully to the attention of the SAC and he is under instructions to submit his comments regarding the ability of the Agents assigned to this program to develop informants. In connection with his August progress report, the SAC has been instructed to submit the results of the analysis he claims has been in progress since July of the various

Mexican Communists who might be possible informant material. Upon receipt of that information it will be reviewed and if the data and facts submitted do not justify the lack of progress, recommendations will be submitted for appropriate administrative action.

The Director in a letter to the Attorney General 9-8-55 stated he was issuing instructions to border offices to discontinue requests of Immigration and Naturalization Service (I&NS) to permit Mexican informants to enter the U. S.

As a result of an interview with SA John J. Creeden, Resident Agent at Monterrey, Mexico, the Director instructed that the matter be explored to determine whether border crossing cards could be obtained through U. S. Consulates for informants in lieu of I&NS. The matter has been explored. (100-419580-13)

Border crossing cards are issued by Consulates; however, when presented at the border a search of I&NS indices is made and if derogatory information of an excludable nature is found the card is picked up and entry is denied. To obtain a card from the Consulate, therefore, solves no problem. If I&NS files contain no excludable information the informant could have obtained the card from I&NS in the first place without FBI mediation.

In unusual cases it might be advantageous to obtain a border crossing card or visa from a Consulate for use at a port of entry other than in the vicinity of the residence of the informant.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

That attached letter be forwarded to border offices and Mexico City, which letter again instructs they are not to request border crossing privileges for informants on a local basis. If circumstances of a particular case merit, they should present the matter to the Bureau for consideration.

Reference is made to your letter of October 1, 1955, outlining the coverage maintained by you in the border states as of that date.

A copy of your letter of 10-1-55 has been furnished to each of the border offices in order that those offices will be aware of the coverage maintained by you and can better integrate their program with yours.

Analysis of your letter of October 1, 1955, discloses that you have one informant who is a member of the Communist Party of Mexico in the State of Tamaulipas and no informants in the Communist Party of Mexico in Coahuila, Chihuahua, Sonora, and Lower California.

While the border offices have primary responsibility for coverage in the 25-mile strip immediately south of the border your office has primary responsibility for coverage in the remaining portions of those Mexican border states. Informant coverage should be established within the Communist Party of Mexico and within other subversive organizations in those areas. Immediately, steps should be taken by you to secure this coverage and you should submit on December 1 and the first day of each month thereafter a progress report reflecting progress in this regard.

Guaymas, Sonora

~~CONF. INFO~~ [] This informant continues to reside and work at Guaymas and has been contacted recently on three separate road trips of SA RINK. He has supplied four written reports on Popular Party activities, and he has identified nine alleged PP members in the Guaymas and Empalme area.

[] This person is Manager of the Banco Nacional de Mexico in Guaymas, Sonora. He is a very pro-American banker who has agreed to assist Resident Agent RINK in any reasonable way. He has provided information of value on the PP and the PCM in Sonora.

Ciudad Obregon, Sonora

[] who is a reliable American businessman married to a Mexican, continues to be contacted regularly. He has supplied valuable information on Popular Party leaders in the Ciudad Obregon area. [] is very well-versed in local affairs, and he has recently placed SA RINK in contact with other pro-American persons of influence in Obregon who will be in a position to report on local PP and PCM activities.

[redacted] has expressed willingness to conduct investigations for the resident agent. There is some possibility he may become [redacted] in Obregon under the new regime of Governor ALVARO OBREGON.

[redacted] Ciudad Obregon. [redacted] is the father of [redacted], who has been mentioned in a previous report on BOCOV matters. [redacted] is a successful American businessman who has resided in Obregon for the past twenty years. Inasmuch as [redacted] has been away from Obregon recently, Resident Agent RINK has been in contact with [redacted] who has expressed a definite interest in being of service in supplying information on internal security matters. [redacted] will be contacted on a regular basis in the future.

Due to the remote areas in which they live, no recent contacts have been made with [redacted] in Navojoa, [redacted] in Punta Peñasco, [redacted] in Navojoa, or [redacted] at Punta Peñasco. [redacted] of the Hotel Association of Sonora, was recontacted in Hermosillo on a recent date and expressed a cooperative attitude, furnishing, however, no information of particular value.

[redacted] This relatively new symbol number informant is [redacted] for the Mexican Pacific Railroad Company, and in the State of Sonora alone he has twelve railroad [redacted] under his supervision. For the last thirty days he has been on an extended trip through the States of Sinaloa and Sonora, during the course of which trip he has been personally instructing his [redacted] to be alert to PCM and PF activities and to promptly report any such local activities. He has also given a personal letter of introduction to SA RINK which instructs [redacted] to cooperate fully with RINK. SA RINK intends to personally contact the majority of these agents in the near future.

Isabel, Ensenada, Baja California. [] was contacted during August, 1955, on the peninsula of Baja California, and at that time reiterated his desire to report information of value. He hoped to make a trip down the peninsula as soon as the rains subsided and the roads opened. On that trip he will be particularly alert for any indication of subversive activities below the Ensenada zone. Thus far he has reported no subversive activities in Ensenada and environs.

~~CONF. INFO~~

[] During September, 1955, this informant, who normally is based in Guadalajara, has been on an extensive road trip covering Baja California from Ensenada south to Santa Rosalia. This area is approximately 500 miles in length and varies in width from 100 to 150 miles. It is desert territory, sparsely inhabited, and inaccessible by road during the rainy season. During the dry season the trip can be made in six days by truck. At present [] has concluded his survey of the area immediately south of Ensenada and is attempting to obtain overland transportation in the direction of Santa Rosalia. The unusually heavy rains of this year have thus far prevented any type of travel down the peninsula. [] was instructed to survey villages and ranches from the standpoint of identities of any persons possibly sympathetic to Communism and hostile to the United States. It is anticipated that his trip will be completed during October, 1955.

~~PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL~~

In submitting requests to the Bureau for authorization to contact an individual in connection with the border coverage program, you should be careful to submit all of the applicable and available information specified in Section 107 (c) of the Manual of Instructions. You should also state what is expected to be achieved by your contacts and how you propose to utilize the person in the event the results of the contacts are favorable. The inclusion of the physical description of the person to be contacted will assist at the Dept of Government in a name check. Check files of local consulate and include any pertinent information.

Where preliminary contacts have been made with an individual in accordance with authority granted by the Bureau and you are writing for authority to contact the individual directly for information regarding Communist activities in Mexico, you should set out the results of previous contacts. State whether you are in a position to assure that if the person, if contacted as you propose, will not disclose to other individuals or agencies, foreign or domestic, the fact that he has been so contacted. Submit your evaluation of the informant's potential in the capacity for which you propose to utilize him together with the facts constituting the basis for this evaluation.

Some of the border offices in submitting these requests presently follow the practice of marshaling the facts under appropriate headings. This practice is very commendable and should be followed by all offices. These topical headings will not necessarily follow the order listed in Section 107 (c) of the Manual of Instructions nor the order set out in this letter. For instance the information found from a file review may be coordinated with information recently developed under such appropriate block headings as: (1) Evidence of Past Affiliation with the Communist Party of Mexico; and (2) Evidence of Current Attitude Toward the Communist Party of Mexico. These specific block headings may vary in each instance. However, there will be no excuse for not submitting the necessary information.

[redacted] has suggested to SA WILLIAM E. OGLESBY that two books could possibly be obtained in Mexico City or Monterrey, Mexico, which would be of considerable assistance in understanding the origin and development of labor unions in Mexico. He formerly had the books but they were destroyed in the 1954 flood at Ciudad Acuna, Coahuila, Mexico. These books are:

Historia de la Confederacion de Trabajadores de Mexico, written by Lic. TRUEBA-URBINA, Assesor Juridico of the CTM; Memorias de la Crom, name of author not recalled.

Informant stated that these two books set forth a good history of the two labor unions with dates and names of persons who have been the leaders in these movements.

The Bureau is requested to endeavor to secure one copy of each through the Legat, Mexico, for the San Antonio Office. The Bureau may further desire to furnish the other border offices with copies of these books if they can be obtained.

As the matter stands at present, our own effective this situation will continue indefinitely, in spite of my some high, nationalistic official might take note of the Ameri-

For your information the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) for several months has been working on a program whereby visas would no longer be required for Cuban citizens visiting the U. S. Instead it is planned that an INS officer will issue clearance for these people at their point of departure in Cuba. The proposed plan has been particularly criticized by the Senate subcommittee investigating subversive activities.

The Bureau has recently received unconfirmed information indicating that INS may have the same type of plan in mind for Mexico. All offices receiving a copy of this letter should be alert for any information so indicating and it should be expeditiously furnished to the Bureau with all details available.

Mr. Tolson:

Jack Steele told me that he is now on the trail of the Cuban situation and it looks to him like General Swing took it upon himself on a misguided way seeking to follow out what he thought was the President's desire of relaxing visas and put into effect the plan to abolish the Visa Office of the State Department in Cuba and set up instead an Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Office to issue visitors' passes and to screen visitors. He has now firmly tied down that INS made a proposal to the State Department to negotiate a treaty to abolish the visa set-up in Cuba; that a tentative agreement had been reached but was not to go into effect until about January 1.

Steele further states that he had learned Senator Kilgore has written a letter to the State Department about INS requesting there be a delay in the new proposal to permit the Senate committee to make a study of it.

Steele further told me he has further been informed that INS made the same approach to Mexico about relaxing on visitors and the Mexicans are not interested and took the position they would wait and see what Cuba does and see what their experience is and INS should then come back and discuss it at a later date.

Jack further stated he understands the whole thing started when the President got into a diplomatic box in Geneva on the fingerprinting of aliens. Upon his return, he was most irritated and instructed that the Government see what could be done to let down the barriers to travelers.

Steele has been trying to get some statement from INS and is being ignored. He is checking on General Swing's whereabouts on November 14 and was going to tell INS that he was going to run the story and if INS wanted to have its side of the story carried, fine; if not, they could deny it. Jack was pretty much irritated and is going to try one last time at INS and is also going to check with the Department. I told Jack I suspected his checking around may have put a damper on some of these matters.

Respectfully,
